

Cafeteria Rules

1. Students will be seated by in the lunchroom, in their assigned seats, according to the procedure outlined by the classroom teacher on the first full day of school.
2. Students shall be responsible and bring their own bag lunch or lunch money. Students will not borrow or lend money or give away (share) their lunches.
3. Students shall remain in their assigned seats, unless released for lunch or reassigned by the lunchroom supervisors.
4. Students shall be responsible for cleaning up the table and floor around the table. Since we do not know who is responsible for items left lying on or around the table, we must ask those sitting closest to the items to pick them up.
5. Students shall obtain permission to use the drinking fountain and/or washroom.
6. Students shall follow the rules by not
  - throwing anything;
  - shouting or whistling;
  - running;
  - inappropriate physical contact;
  - cutting in line;
  - moving the tables;
  - using inappropriate language;
  - refusing to clean up when directed to;
  - pounding on the tables;
  - marking or defacing the table;
  - sharing food
7. Students shall understand that breaking any rules will result in lunch detentions, changed seating assignment, after school detention, or stronger disciplinary measures. Throwing of food in the cafeteria can result in suspension.
8. Students shall wait quietly until the classroom teacher picks them up at the end of the lunch period.
